Post-Event Brief Report: Session on E-Commerce and Online Earning Opportunities

On 18 November 2026, an interactive session titled "E-Commerce and Online Earning Opportunities for Young Entrepreneurs" was conducted in the Video Conference Room at the Institute of Management Sciences (IMSciences). Featuring young entrepreneur Mr. Huzaifa Khan as the guest speaker, the event introduced students to global online marketplaces—such as eBay—and demonstrated how internet-based ventures can serve as viable pathways to financial independence.

Throughout the talk, Mr.Huzaifa Khan emphasized the necessity of building digital skills, identifying market opportunities, understanding customer needs, and looking beyond conventional career routes toward self-employment. The session concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, leaving participants with practical guidance and a stronger entrepreneurial mindset.
