

Chinese delegation visits IMSciences

A Chinese delegation, comprising of members from the fields of Law, Trade, academia and Research visited IMSciences today. Members of the delegation included Dr./Prof. Song Zhihui; OBOR Senior Researcher, Deputy Dean School of International Studies, Sichuan University, Director Pakistan Study Center, Ms. Chunyan MA; Director Tahota Law Firm, International Trade, Investment, Business Law, Ms. Qiu Yonghui; Assoc. Professor School of International Relation, Sichuan University, and Ms. Xiao Jianmei; Researcher South Asian Study Center. The delegation was accompanied by Dr. Mohammad Mustafa; Lawyer High Court, Lead Consultant for this project and Mr. Kashif M. Khan; Managing Director Global Entrepreneurship Network, Pakistan.

The meeting was arranged by Small and Medium Enterprises Development Authority (SMEDA) as part of the greater cause i.e. increasing Chinese investment in Pakistan. Dr. Muhammad Mohsin Khan, Director IMSciences welcomed the guests and Dr. Usman Ghani, Joint Director IMSciences briefed the delegation about the IMSciences and areas where both the parties could work together. Mr. Sikandar Tangi, Assistant Professor IMSciences and Coordinator ALEP, the International Office of IMSciences, briefed the delegation about different student exchange programs run by the IMSciences and how IMSciences already has some MoUs signed with Chinese universities.

The Chinese delegation in turn thanked IMSciences for a warm welcome and discussed different plans in terms of academia, whereby students and faculty alike could benefit from what both the countries could offer. It was decided that more such meetings ought to take place before proper action starts taking place.

At the end of the meeting, mementos in the shape of shields were exchanged between the representatives of IMSciences and the Chinese delegation.
