

IMSciences, Peshawar Students Shine in Ufone Summer

Internship Program (SIP, 2019)

The Institute of Management Sciences, Peshawar secured top positions at Ufone Summer Internship Program (SIP), 2019. The SIP is a flagship program of Ufone through which the company inducts best talent in the real time business projects of the company. 1500 students across the country from the top Business and Engineering schools participated in SIP, 2019 and just 44 made it to the program. Students from LUMS, NUST, GIKI, LSE, FAST and IMSciences Peshawar were enrolled in real time business projects across the different functional departments of the company.

Mr. Fasih Durrani, an undergraduate student of IMSciences, Peshawar secured best performance award while Mr. Usama Khusheed, another undergraduate student of the institute bagged best presentation and avid learner awards. Ufone Executives, Deans and Directors of the participating business and engineering schools attended the concluding ceremony.