

Session on Social Responsibilities in Islamic Context

IM Economist Society organised a session on “Social Responsibilities in Islamic Context” at the Institute of Management Sciences, Peshawar. The key note speaker for the session was Mufti Omar Saeed Orakzai (PhD Scholar at IMSciences). During the session, Mufti Omar interacted with the participants about a Muslim’s responsibilities at individual, family and societal level. He asked the participants to utilise all available resources and focus on future goals and dreams of their parents for which they left no should leave no stone unturned. He stressed that we should try to cooperate with each other and not be a source of distress for others since it is our religious as well societal responsibility. Mufti Omar urged the participants to utilize limited resources like water etc. wisely and efficiently because the future generations also have a right over these resources. The session was attended by a large number of students and faculty of the institute.

In his concluding remarks, Mr Saleem Shah, member of IM Economist society thanked the participants for their interest in the session. He urged them to become productive members of the society because that is the only way which can lead towards collective prosperity.
