

Christmas Celebration at IMSCIENCES by Art & Culture Society in Collaboration with Lincoln Corner Peshawar

The Art & Culture Society of IMSCIENCES, in collaboration with Lincoln Corner, organized a delightful Christmas celebration to honor the Christian staff of IMSCIENCES. The event featured vibrant activities, including a staff member dressed as Santa Claus, who distributed chocolates among the attendees.

A cake-cutting ceremony marked the joyous occasion, accompanied by performances of Christmas songs by students and Christian staff. The event was graced by the presence of IMSCIENCES administrative representatives, faculty, and students, who enthusiastically participated in the celebration.

The event fostered an atmosphere of unity, respect, and festivity, highlighting the institution's commitment to inclusivity and appreciation for diverse cultural and religious traditions.
